

Secondary School Talk

Speech and Language

Led by

Yvette Jones Highly Specialist Speech and Language Therapist

Liz Jamieson Specialist Speech and Language therapist

This course will define the different areas of difficulty for children with speech, language and communication needs. It will cover the challenges relating to lesson content across the curriculum, and strategies to address these. Practical activities will be included to raise participants' confidence in taking these strategies back into the classroom as part of their daily practice.

This session is aimed at teachers, teaching assistants and SENCOs working with children at secondary school level.
