

“Can’t write, won’t write—and you can’t make me”

Writing skills workshop for reluctant writers

Secondary version

Presented by Neil Mackay, Action Dyslexia

Virtual presentation via Zoom

Date: 30th March 2021

Time: 1:00pm – 4:00pm

Cost: £50 pp (Boost funding available for BCP Schools)

Suitable for Class Teachers, HLTAs and Teaching Assistants

Writing Skills workshop for reluctant writers

Secondary version

This interactive and hands-on workshop focusses on strategies to support reluctant writers to get their ideas down on paper in a range of subject settings and a range of genre, including report/recount, discussion/persuasion and fiction. The strategies will reduce cognitive overload and provide practical solutions to address the three key reasons why writing can be so difficult for some learners. Group based multi-sensory activities, ideal for whole class and small group settings will be modelled, together with innovative ways to make use of frameworks and scaffolds.

Please book via www.bcpworkforcedevelopment.co.uk