

Get it right for SEN, get it right for all!

The evidence validated habits of outstanding teachers

Led by Neil Mackay
Action Dyslexia

Suitable for Senior Leaders, SENCOs, Teachers, HLTA's, TAs

- Practical workshop delivered virtually
- Solution focused approaches to address poor working memory, slow speed of processing, cognitive overload and mismatches between ability and achievement.
- Inclusive solutions in the form of high impact accommodations for those who often think faster than they read, write, spell and get ideas down on paper, especially those without diagnosis.

By the end of the presentation participants will “do” all the activities and have time to discuss and reflect .

Date : Thursday 11th November    Time: 9am-4pm

Virtual Delivery via Zoom

Cost : £80 per person (Boost funding available for BCP Schools)

Booking : www.bcpworkforcedevelopment.co.uk

Previously Senior Teacher/SENCO in a large secondary school in North Wales and now an independent consultant and trainer, Neil Mackay originated the phrase and the concept “Dyslexia Friendly Schools.” Neil works with state, independent and International schools and LAs in the UK, Europe, New Zealand ,Australia, Dubai and Hong Kong, supporting teachers to develop inclusive accommodations which help individuals without always needing to give individual help. He is the preferred trainer for a number of Local Authorities at home and abroad, writing and delivering training courses for teachers in local and international schools – in this role he is known for his ability to bring the classroom into the training room, leaving participants with a wealth of practical “things to try tomorrow”.