

Primary English Network

Suitable for English subject leads, Senior and Middle Leaders and anyone with an interest in the subject

Date: Tuesday 22nd June 2021

Time: 1:30pm – 3.30 pm

Delivered Virtually via Zoom

No charge to attend—funded by LTSA

Led by:

Sandy Stockwell, Senior Lecturer,
The University of Winchester.

Critical Literacy - Reading between the lines

More than ever before, children are exposed to a vast array of texts, both in print and online, both written and visual. No text is neutral and children increasingly need to be able to recognise the author's intention and how this is achieved through text construction.

This session will explore the thinking behind this together with teaching strategies to enable children to become curious, engaged, active readers, able to use skills of inference, analysis and evaluation.

www.LinwoodTSA.org.uk

Please book via www.bcpworkforcedevelopment.co.uk