

Brick by Brick Programme (Formerly LEGO-based Therapy)

Delivered by Hatchlings School, London

All the consultants at Hatchlings London are trained to deliver the Brick-by-Brick™ programme.

The ethos behind the Brick-by-Brick™ programme, formerly known as LEGO® based therapy, is for the programme to bring young people together to make friends and develop skills over a shared interest in LEGO play. Hatchlings London use the licenced training developed by Play Included, partners of the LEGO Foundation. The course provided is the Play Included Brick-by-Brick™ Programme, this course is endorsed by the Autism Research Centre, Cambridge University and the LEGO Foundation.
